

Student-Directed Activities- The Capitol Building

Use a Venn Diagram to demonstrate the differences of the three branches of government.	Construct a timeline of Virginia's three capital cities.	Thomas Jefferson designed the Capitol Building in Richmond, Virginia. Can you find and describe other buildings and inventions from Thomas Jefferson?
You are in charge of designing Virginia's Capitol Building. Construct a model of the Capitol you would design and describe it.	Virginia's Senate has 40 members. Can you find out who the Senator is from your district?	Type a persuasive paragraph describing why voting is so important.
Create a chart using your computer describing the two groups that make up the General Assembly.	The Capitol Building has a statue of George Washington in the center hallway. Use art materials or the computer to construct/ paint a statue of yourself to put in that hallway.	The Governor of Virginia represents the Executive Branch of government. Research Virginia's first Governor, and create a biography and illustration describing him.